Private Trumpet Lesson Contract

This document contains important information about my professional services and business policies. Please read this information carefully and ask about any information that you do not fully understand. Once you sign this document, it is a binding agreement between us.

Benefits of Private Trumpet Lessons:

Private trumpet lessons are most beneficial for three types of students: (1) Students who are highly motivated and/or excel on the trumpet and who are looking to enrich their trumpet playing and perform at a competitive level; (2) Students who have never played the trumpet before and would like to learn how to play the trumpet; (3) Students who enjoy playing the trumpet, but are either struggling in band at school or are behind in band at school for whatever reason and want to improve their playing. Some benefits of private trumpet lessons include, but are not limited to:

- Find fun and satisfaction through music
- Gain a sense of accomplishment
- Improve your knowledge and skills
- Learn responsibility
- Clear up misconceptions
- Solve technical difficulties
- Learn how to practice the correct way
- Learn how to solve problems in general
- Cope with frustrations and anxiety
- Develop concentration
- Actively use both sides of the brain
- Experience to help guide you in your trumpet playing

Mrs. Syversen was also invited to guest conduct the Virginia All-Shore Band in 2006. Currently Mrs. Syversen is a member of the Annapolis Wind Symphony and the Bayside Brass Quintet and freelances in the Maryland area.

Policies:

1. I teach trumpet lessons in my studio located at 10500 Eastwind Way Columbia, MD 21044:
 - a. Please park only in the non-reserved parking spaces or along a white curb.
 - b. Please remove your shoes when entering.
 - c. Both students and parents should remain in the trumpet studio only and should not go upstairs.
2. If your child misses a lesson, either planned or unplanned, please include that lesson's cost in the next week's payment. Also, I would appreciate your notifying me either in advance of that day by phone 301.661.6654 or email amy_syversen@hcpss.org, or if the absence will be on the same day as the lesson, by phone through either a call or a text message.
 - a. The only missed lessons permissible without payment will be for those related to a school performance or concert.
 - b. If for any reason I have to cancel my lessons, no payment is expected. I believe you will find that my rates are competitive compared to those of local music stores and other teachers in the Howard County area.
3. If you are unexpectedly running late for your lesson please call me on my cell phone at 301.661.6654 so I know that you are on your way. Because lessons are scheduled back to back I will most likely not be able to make up missed lesson times that day and will still require full lesson payment.
4. Lessons are a time to clean musicianship and technical abilities; they are NOT practice time. When a student is unprepared for a lesson, they will not be able to progress, and if this happens frequently it becomes very frustrating for both the student and myself. Every once in a while things come up and a student will be unable to prepare for that week's lesson and that is okay when it happens on an infrequent basis. If frequently the student has not been able to practice properly, I will most likely have the student discontinue his or her lessons with me. Your time and money is valuable and I do not feel comfortable taking your money and time if I am unable to give a proper lesson due to lack of preparation.

2011 – 2012 Trumpet Lesson Schedule and Contract

Lesson Times and Costs:

30-minute lesson is $30

45-minute lesson is $35

60-minute lesson is $40

I accept cash or check and I charge an additional $5 for lessons in which I travel to students' homes to teach.

Materials:

After the first lesson and from time to time, I will give you a list of materials the student needs to obtain. The sooner the materials are purchased, the better. I will expect the student to be prepared with those materials by the next lesson and by no later than the second lesson after the material request is made. Every student will have at least one method book to work out of. I will let you know which books after the first lesson. Finally, most students will also have solos to work on, which I will help you purchase either at a music store or online. Every student should also have a spiral notebook in which I will keep notes on what to practice as well as comments for improvement.

Here is a preliminary list, in case you want to get a head start. Every student MUST have a metronome:

- Metronome – If you are not practicing with a metronome you are not practicing properly!
- Spiral notebook to keep track of lesson progress
- Music Stand (for home use, do not bring to lesson)
- Instrument and mouthpiece in good playing condition – most beginners should be playing on a Bach size 7C mouthpiece and most intermediate and advanced students should be playing on a Bach size 3C mouthpiece (please discuss mouthpieces with me before purchasing one if you do not already have one)
- Two pencils with erasers stored in your instrument case
- Folder or binder to keep track of lesson materials and spiral notebook.
- One bottle of Al Cass Brand Piston Valve Oil
- Tuning slide grease
- Soft cloth for cleaning
- Mouthpiece brush

Practicing:

This is your weekly homework. I expect you to practice every day. If music is important to you, you will find time to practice every day. Beginners should practice 30 minutes each day. Intermediates should practice 45 minutes each day. Advanced should practice 75 minutes each day. These are minimum requirements. Can you practice more? Absolutely! Do you need to practice this much all in one sitting? No. Practice for 30 minutes, take a break, do some homework, hang out with friends, and then come back and practice another 15-30 minutes. We will discuss proper practicing during our lessons.
